Earlene Cunningham Bryant A Descendant of James Madison Finney

As a child I lived with my grand mother I called Mammie. She was Mary Bell Perry Gipson. Her mother was Sarah Jane Finney and married George Washington Perry. She passed away when I was 12. we spent a lot of time with her sister Daisy Gifford. They loved each other so much, When Mammie died Daisy never went fishing again because the wasn't there to go with her. They were as different as day lite from dark. Mammie was very religious and serious Dasy was funny and witty. She told us ghost stories that would make the hair rise on your head. We called her Ma and I loved her just like I did mammie.

Daisy said she married Russ Gifford on her 18th birthday. Mother (Sarah Jane Parry) per here.

Jane Perry) ran her down and tore her clothes off and whipped her for marrying a yankee. Her mother was strong willed thard worker very high tempered. She was a mid wife they came for miles around on mules and hand cars when their wives got ready to deliver. Adad George W. Perry, was a butcher in Brooks store in Swanee. Was mad at Russ for years, but one day she got desperate. She run out of dipping snuff ask him to go buy her some He did, and they were friends for life. Ethel Mae Daisys daughter turned 90°2-5-2004. She lives in Palmer still dipps. They all had their own spit can. I loved to hear them talk and spit that snuff.
